

GREEK ORTHODOX ARCHDIOCESE OF AMERICA

March 13, 2018

Dear Reverend Fathers,

I hope you, your families and your parishes are doing well.

I would like to remind you that this year since the Feast Day of The Annunciation falls on a Sunday, memorials are not allowed. Therefore, this coming Sunday would be the last one for memorials until Myrrhbearers Sunday which is April 22nd.

I trust that all the clergy and parishes will abide by this and make any necessary preparations and adjustments in order to avoid confusion within the District.

I wish you all a very blessed remainder of Great and Holy Lent. May the Good Lord give you strength as you continue this journey leading up to Holy Week and Pascha.

I remain always in Christ,

Fr. Chrysostom
